The organization and planning of the IAAC Meeting held on Sept 2021 was appropriate and fruitful. In this meeting there was a thorough discussion on the issues related to the academics.

This meeting had clear objectives that were met in the ~~duration~~ duration of the meeting. There was a satisfactory discussion on the needs and requirements of the students, keeping in mind the majority of the students belonging to rural areas and poor family; for their versatile personality development.

What we have observed that all the activities taking place in the college were gone through IAAC. All the relevant demands regarding the students as well as issues related to financial matters are presented before C.O.C. for further action.

This type of meeting helps us to understand our efficiencies and areas of improvement.
